2. STATUS OF THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 2.1. These Terms and Conditions are applicable to the Parties’ co-operation in respect of the sale and/or supply of Goods or the performance of Services set out in the Purchase Order. If the Parties have concluded a written agreement within this scope, the Terms and Conditions shall apply, unless the Parties agreed otherwise in a written agreement. The terms and conditions in any separately negotiated and signed written agreement entered into by the Parties in respect of the Goods or Services identified in the Purchase Order shall overrule these Terms and Conditions.
- 2.2. The Purchase Order constitutes an offer by Haleon to purchase the Goods or Services specified therein in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. An offer to conclude the Agreement is deemed to have been accepted by the Supplier on the earlier of: (a) the Supplier delivering to Haleon a written acceptance of the Purchase Order, or (b) the Supplier performing any act consistent with fulfilling the Purchase Order.
- 2.3. If Supplier amends, supplements or accepts with reservations an offer submitted to the Supplier by Haleon, it is considered as a new offer made by Supplier to Haleon. Haleon has the right to decide whether to accept such a new offer.
- 2.4. Under no circumstances may an absence of Haleon’s answer to a statement sent by email cause an emergence, modification or termination of legal relations.
- 2.5. Haleon will not be liable in respect of any Purchase Order(s) or instructions other than those issued or confirmed on its official Purchase Order documents, whether issued in hard copy (in which case such documents shall be valid only when duly signed), or issued electronically in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.

3. DELIVERY OF GOODS AND PROVISION OF SERVICES

3.1. The Supplier must deliver Goods and must perform Services at the time and place specified in the Agreement or Purchase Order. The Supplier will supply Haleon with details of the anticipated lead times between placing a Purchase Order and the delivery of any Goods, and will keep Haleon informed of progress. All deliveries of Goods must be accompanied by a delivery note (and any other delivery documentation specified in the Purchase Order or otherwise in the Agreement) showing the date of the Purchase Order, the Purchase Order number, the type and quantity of Goods being delivered, special storage instructions (if any) and, if the Goods are being delivered by installment, the outstanding balance remaining to be delivered. If Goods or Services are not delivered in accordance with the Agreement, the Supplier will be responsible for any costs incurred on this account. The quantity of Goods or Services specified in the Agreement may not be changed without Haleon's prior written consent. Quantities of Goods or Services delivered in excess of those stated in the Agreement will not be accepted by Haleon, and if they are accepted, Haleon will have no obligation to pay for them, in which case the Supplier will immediately take them back at its expense.

3.2. The Supplier will not deliver the Goods in installments without Haleon's prior written consent. Where it is agreed that Goods are to be delivered in installments, they may (at Haleon's discretion) be invoiced and paid for separately. However, a failure by the Supplier to deliver any one installment on time or at all, or any defectiveness in an installment will entitle Haleon to the remedies set out in Section 7 (subject to Haleon's other rights and remedies).

3.3. Time shall be of the essence in relation to the performance of any and all of Supplier's obligations pursuant to the Agreement.

4. PASSING OF TITLE AND RISK IN GOODS

4.1. Unless Incoterms are agreed (in which case the risk will pass to Haleon in accordance with the agreed Incoterms), the title and risk in the Goods will pass to Haleon on acceptance of delivery at the place specified in the Agreement.

4.2. Neither payment by Haleon, nor the passing of title or risk in the Goods or the Services to Haleon will be deemed to constitute the acceptance of the Goods or the Services.

5. PRICE AND PAYMENT TERMS

5.1. The price for the Goods or Services will be set out in the Purchase Order. The price, unless otherwise agreed in writing, includes all costs (costs of all Packaging, delivery and insurance) and fees incurred by the Supplier and covers all the financial claims of the Supplier, its employees and subcontractors on account of performing the Agreement, and Haleon's use of the Works delivered as part of the Agreement in accordance therewith. Any increase of the price, regardless of its cause, requires Haleon's express prior written consent.

5.2. The price set out in the Purchase Order is a net amount and does not include VAT; however, it includes all other public levies, in particular customs and taxes. VAT (or any other equivalent tax), when applicable, will be shown separately on all invoices. Within 14 days of delivering Haleon's request to the Supplier, the Supplier will provide Haleon with an original certificate of residence referring to the Supplier. If this document is not delivered to Haleon, or if it is delivered after the deadline, all consequences of such an event will be borne by the Supplier. This refers, in particular, to Haleon's failure to apply a tax rate resulting from a relevant international convention.

5.3. If the Supplier transfers Intellectual Property Rights to Haleon, or grants Haleon a license for them, the price set out in the Purchase Order will include remuneration on this account (in respect of all areas of application resulting from the Agreement and regardless of the benefits that Haleon will receive from exploiting a given object of Intellectual Property Rights), including all costs that the Supplier incurred in connection with obtaining licenses making it possible to perform the Agreement within this scope. In addition, the Supplier has an obligation to indicate on the invoice the price for transferring Intellectual Property Rights or granting a license with regard to them as a separate amount. If the Agreement does not set out the amount on this account, the amount will be 10% of the price specified in the Purchase Order and will be deemed included in this price.

5.4. Unless the Agreement or mandatory laws provide otherwise, the Supplier will issue an invoice or Haleon will pay the price to the Supplier only after all Goods ordered are delivered or after the Service has been entirely performed, and the above circumstances are confirmed by Haleon in writing. The payment will be made by Haleon within 60 days of the Supplier delivering to Haleon a correctly issued invoice.

5.5. All invoices issued by the Supplier must include the number of the Purchase Order. The absence of the correct number of the Purchase Order constitutes a breach of the Agreement by the Supplier making it impossible for Haleon to carry out the procedure of authorizing and paying the amount due set out in the invoice. The delivery of an invoice that does not include the correct Purchase Order number will not result in commencing the time limit for payment, whereas such invoices will be deemed as having been issued incorrectly.

5.6. The Supplier has an obligation to send invoices directly to the address of Haleon indicated in the Purchase Order. The delivery of an invoice to any other address (even the address of Haleon's registered office) constitutes a breach of the Agreement by the Supplier, resulting in the suspension of the time limit for payment of the amount indicated in the invoice until the invoice is delivered to the correct address.

5.7. If Haleon considers rightly that any invoice submitted by the Supplier is defective, or any part of it refers to Goods or Services inconsistent with the Agreement, then Haleon will be entitled to withhold payment of the disputed amount pending resolution of the dispute between the Parties.

5.8. The Supplier will not be entitled to set off any amounts payable to it by Haleon from the amounts payable by the Supplier to Haleon without the prior written consent of Haleon.

5.9. Any payment for an undisputed bona fide invoice not received by the due date shall be subject to an interest charge of 8% per annum above the European Central Bank base rate (rate applicable to main refinancing operations) from time to time.

6. QUALITY AND FITNESS FOR PURPOSE OF GOODS

6.1. The Goods and Services must comply in all respects with their description and the Specification (or any modifications to the Specification that may be agreed in writing with Haleon). The Goods and Services delivered must also comply in all respects with the Agreement and all laws and instruments (including standards and norms) issued on their basis, as well as standards and norms customarily applied in the industry in which the Supplier is active, unless the application of such standards or norms provides Haleon a standard of Goods and Services less favorable for Haleon than the one resulting from the Agreement or the law.

6.2. Notwithstanding Section 6.1, the Goods must be supplied with adequate instructions as to use, and no later than before the lapse of 1/10 of the use-by period, fit for the purpose for which they are intended, of the highest quality, free from defects in design, material and workmanship.

6.3. The Supplier will ensure that the Goods comply with all requirements relating to the manufacture, labelling, packaging, storage, handling and delivery of the Goods resulting from the laws, as well as the standards or industry norms customarily applied in the industry in which the Supplier is active, unless the application of such standards or norms provides Haleon a standard of Goods and Services less favorable for Haleon than the one resulting from the Agreement or laws.

6.4. The Goods must be supplied free from liens and encumbrances and any other rights of third persons and any other legal defects.

7. REJECTION, REPAIR AND REPLACEMENT OF GOODS

7.1. In the event that the Goods do not conform with the Agreement, and without limiting any of its other rights and remedies, Haleon may, at its discretion:

7.1.1. reject all or part of the Goods and return them to the Supplier at the Supplier's own risk and expense; and/or

7.1.2. require the Supplier to either repair or replace the Goods at the site of delivery or the Supplier's premises as soon as practically possible, whichever Haleon determines, or to refund to Haleon any amounts paid in respect of any Goods that do not correspond with the Agreement (and repaired or replacement Goods will themselves be subject to the obligations in the Agreement); and/or

7.1.3. in the case of incorrect delivery, require the Supplier to promptly reimburse Haleon in respect of any costs (including, but not limited to, freight, clearance, duty and storage charges) incurred by Haleon; and/or

7.1.4. purchase Goods elsewhere that, as nearly as practicable, comply with the Agreement (and any extra expense thus incurred will be paid by the Supplier to Haleon on demand), provided that, before exercising the right to purchase elsewhere, Haleon will give the Supplier a reasonable opportunity to replace the rejected Goods with goods that conform with the Agreement; and/or

7.1.5. claim damages for any other costs, losses or expenses incurred by Haleon that are attributable to the Supplier's failure to carry out its obligations under the Agreement.

7.2. In the event of a rejection of all or part of the Goods in accordance with Section 7.1 above, Haleon will notify the Supplier in writing, and the payment obligation in relation to any such delivery will be suspended.

8. STANDARD OF PERFORMANCE OF AGREEMENT

8.1. While performing any activities aimed at completing the tasks entrusted to it under the Agreement, the Supplier has an obligation to act with the utmost care, which will be assessed taking into account the professional nature of the Supplier's industry.

8.2. The Supplier warrants and represents that all activities it undertakes to perform the Agreement, and delivered Goods and/or performed Services, will comply with applicable laws and regulations and will not violate any third-party rights. If a third-party consent is required in order to obtain a right to perform a given aspect of the Agreement (including the consent of an administrative body), the Supplier has an obligation to obtain that consent.

8.3. The Supplier will ensure that all of its personnel and sub-contractors have relevant competences and qualifications to perform the Services, and that all the licenses, consents, permits and other authorizations, that are necessary for carrying out its obligations under the Agreement, have been properly obtained.

8.4. If any materials necessary for the provision of the Services are not delivered fully in accordance with the stipulations in the Agreement, the Supplier will immediately make the correct delivery and will be responsible for all additional costs and expenses incurred by the parties in so doing.

8.5. Haleon has the right to suspend any payment obligation in respect of the Services if the performance does not conform with the stipulations in the Agreement, or if the performance is delayed.

8.6. If the Services do not conform with the Agreement, Haleon has the right to purchase Services from elsewhere, which as far as practicable will conform to the Agreement, and any extra expense incurred in so doing will be paid by the Supplier to Haleon. Before exercising the right to purchase the Services from an alternative supplier, Haleon will give the Supplier an opportunity to replace the Services in respect of which payment was cancelled with Services that conform with the Agreement.

9. PACKAGING

The Supplier will package and label the Goods in a manner suitable for transit and storage so as to enable them to reach their destination in a condition consistent with the stipulations of the Agreement. Haleon will not pay for or return Packaging materials unless previously agreed between the Parties and confirmed in writing. The Supplier will

The Supplier has an obligation to introduce environmental improvements to Packaging and will, where practicable, use minimal Packaging, recyclable Packaging and recycled Packaging materials.

10. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

10.1. All materials provided to the Supplier by Haleon, or an entity commissioned by it, in particular Specifications, assumptions, source materials especially in the form of trade marks, photographs, graphics, as well as the know-how and the potential creative contribution of Haleon's employees into the performance of the Agreement, etc. are owned by or reserved only for Haleon or its Affiliate, and will be used by the Supplier exclusively for the purpose of properly performing the Agreement. All Intellectual Property Rights to the above materials will remain with Haleon or its relevant Affiliate.

10.2. The Parties agree that:

10.2.1. on the date of transferring Works to Haleon, the Supplier will be entitled to Intellectual Property Rights to the Works and the ownership right to copies of Works within the scope necessary to perform the Supplier's obligations resulting from the Agreement, and all due financial claims of third parties connected with the Supplier performing or obtaining rights to Works and their copies will be fully satisfied;

10.2.2. without the prior written consent of Haleon, the Works will not be made available to the public or publicized in any other manner before the date of transferring the Works to Haleon, unless the Works were created before the Supplier initiated co-operation with Haleon and they do not include Haleon's materials described in Section 10.1 above.

10.3. Subject to the stipulations below, envisaging further rights of Haleon and the obligations of the Supplier, the moment a Work is issued or made available to Haleon, a non-exclusive licence is granted to Haleon by the Supplier for the unlimited period of time without any territorial or other limitation, to use the Works in all areas of application and forms of exploitation, and in particular:

10.3.1. within the scope of recording and reproducing the Work – making copies of the Work by any known technique;

The Supplier transfers to Haleon the right to license the performance of a derivative copyright.

10.5. If a Work contains other work protected by the copyright, the Supplier declares that it is entitled to authorize Haleon to use such a work and authorizes Haleon to exploit such a work as a part of the Work within the scope described in Section 10.3 above.

10.6. The Supplier undertakes to Haleon that the authors (co-authors) of Work will not seek against Haleon the rights to make payment of any amounts or any other claims on the account of Haleon's use of rights acquired on the basis of the Agreement, such use being consistent with the Agreement, regardless of the scope of exploitation, nor will they pursue any rights of the author (co-author) specified in the respective laws. In particular, Haleon will be entitled to mark the objects of Intellectual Property Rights (e.g. Works) in the manner of its choosing.

10.7. If the Supplier – as part of performing the Agreement – creates a database that does not meet the criteria of copyright protection as a work, it is deemed that Haleon is the producer of such a database, and that all the rights to the database will be vested in Haleon.

10.8. Within the scope in which Works contain or refer to Haleon's materials described in Section 10.1 above, or within the scope in which Works were created for the first time in connection with concluding or performing the Agreement in favor of Haleon, at the request of Haleon which may be submitted by Haleon to the Supplier within 10 years from concluding the Agreement, the Supplier will conclude a written agreement for transferring to Haleon the Intellectual Property Rights to such Works, to the broadest extent admissible by the law, without any limitations as to the territory and time of exploitation, as well as with the application of all the provisions of this Section, including in particular the areas of application and scope of exploitation.
